We hope participants who registered for "Full Participation" will register on the first half day of the conference (22nd June) as much as possible. Registration time will be limited in the morning on full conference days. Participants will be required to display their name tags when entering the conference rooms.

On 22nd June, we will have a 'Conserv'Session' movie screening (BBC Horizon "Should We Close Our Zoos? ") with discussion session and a welcome reception at the Clock Tower, Kyoto University.
